6. The contractor will supply ragi grain to be ground by convicts, which will be issued as floor. Other articles such as rice, dal and buller, etc., will be cleaned by convict labour free before issue. Firewood will also be chopped by free convict labour before issue.

The supply to be calculated and payment made upon the quantity of floor so issued at the rate of the ragi grain. In the case of other articles payment will be made on the quantity of cleaned articles issued.

7. The Superintendent does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender, and he may reject any tender without assigning any reason for it.

8. The deposits of the successful tenderers will be retained, and will be forfeited if they fail to execute the contract bond or to furnish security to the amount of Rs. 300 (Rupees three hundred) for grains, Rs. 50 (Rupees fifty) for condiments and Rs. 100 (Rupees one hundred) for other necessaries, in cash or Government paper, within one week from the date of the acceptance of their contracts being made known to them.

9. The contract for supplies shall be entered into for the whole year, at the end of which alone final adjustment of accounts will take place. In the meanwhile, to facilitate supplies, advances to the extent of the value of supplies made in a month, will be made to the contractor at the end of that month, by which time, bills with vouchers must be submitted duly signed by him (contractor) in presence of the Superintendent. The amounts thus advanced will be set off against the amount payable to the contractor at the end of the year for things supplied by him. These advances are not liable to be attached by Civil Courts.

10. Store rooms will be made over to the contractors in which they can keep all non-perishable articles, of which not less than one month's supply must always be in store, i.e., the quantity in stock plus the quantity issued to prisoners in the month should be not less than a month's supply. The Government shall have a lien on the grains, etc., stored from time to time by the contractor on the Jail premises, for the amounts advanced to him from time to time. Perishable articles such as vegetables, mutton, etc., must be at the Jail by 7 A.M. daily.

11. A fine not exceeding Rs. 50 will be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Jail and subject to the approval of the Inspector-General of Prisons in each case for any infringement of the stipulation of the contract or for the supply of inferior articles, and if frequently violated, the contract may be annulled and the security confiscated to the Government.

12. The decision of the Inspector-General of Prisons, will be final in all questions of infringement of contract.

13. Ordinarily the contractor will not be asked to supply vegetables daily, unless the Jail garden fails, in which case he has to supply them at the rate quoted in his tender. The cost of vegetables will be excluded for consideration, when various tenders recalled are to be compared.

14. Any further information can be obtained by applying to the Superintendent's office.

15. The accepted tender will be subject to confirmation by the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, who reserves to himself the right of rejecting all or any of the tenders.

16. If the contractors are unwilling or unable to carry out their agreement, they shall give at least one month's notice and shall be liable to forfeit the security money to Government.

17. The contractors will also be bound to make good to Government any loss which may arise from their failure or by Government having to purchase the articles specified, in the contracts in the local markets at higher rates than those contracted for.

N. B.—No concession of any kind will be allowed in the contracts.

Notice dated 16th September 1918.

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders will be received up to 8 A.M. on Wednesday the 4th December 1918 by the Superintendent of the Mysore Jail for the supply of the following raw materials required for use in the Industrial Department of the Jail.

2. Tenders should be drawn up in the subjoined form, superscribed as "Tender for the supply of raw materials" and sent or delivered in person to the Superintendent of the Jail with a deposit of Rs. 100.

3. All tenders must specify the rate at which the following articles will be supplied and all articles must be of good quality.

4. The tenders will be opened on the above date in the presence of such tenderers as may choose to attend and it is open to the Superintendent to accept or reject all or any of them. The successful competitor will be required to execute a bond with a further deposit of Rs. 100 for the due fulfilment of the stipulation of the contract for supply, failing which he shall forfeit to Government the amount orginally deposited with his tender.

5. The contract for supplies shall be entered into for the whole period of one year from 1st January 1918, but articles are generally purchased either once a quarter or once for all and advances will be made to the extent of the value of each supply. Bills are to be submitted soon after each supply and a consolidated one at the end of the year when the accounts will be finally adjusted.

6. The successful competitor shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 30 for any infringement of the conditions of contract or for the supply of inferior articles and the security may be confiscated to Government in case of persistent violation of terms.

7. The final acceptance of any tender shall lie with the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore to whom appeals also lie against all orders of the Superintendent fining the contractor or confiscating his security.

8. Any further information required in this connection may be had at the Mysore Jail Office.
